PRESENTATION OF THE ÉCOMUSÉE D'ALSACE

The Écomusée d'Alsace is organised like an Alsatian village from the early 20th century. As a Musée de France, it showcases an exceptional collection of buildings and everyday objects and helps to pass on craft skills and know-how. Located in Ungersheim, a town in transition, it also plays a key role in preserving the environment.

This year, the Écomusée d'Alsace is celebrating its 40th anniversary! As such, the museum invites you to experience its history...

CONDITIONS

- We're giving away invitations to the museum. This is not remunerated.
- We'll give you free tickets for the 2024 season (up to 4 adults and 2 children) and a welcome gift to make the most of your day.
- In exchange for visibility on social networks by mentioning us.

In the case of publication, please indicate in the description: Commercial collaboration - Invitation

PLACES TO EAT

8 shaded picnic areas await you!

Picnicking in the heart of the Écomusée d'Alsace is definitely a must at the museum! Bring your picnic basket and make the most of the scenery the museum has to offer.

Our favourite spot: behind Bollwiller station!

Self-service: The Auberge d'Hégenheim

The Auberge d'Hégenheim is located on the edge of the nature reserve, and offers visitors a self-service restaurant.

Snack bar: La Boulangerie

This snack bar offers visitors sandwiches, pretzels, tarts flambées and a wide range of pastries.

Restaurant: The Taverne

The Taverne restaurant invites you to sample traditional, authentic Alsatian cuisine.

In summer and during events, crowds can be quite large. We advise you to bring your own picnic or book a table at La Taverne restaurant on +33 03 69 58 50 25.
